HAWTHORNE RACING.

Once upon a time Jack Frost "got in with both hands" and the briny deep was so affected that the crabs and the lobsters were embalmed in icy coffins and for months supplied the Icelanders both with sea food of the best and subject matter for scientific speculation. If some such sort of frigidity could now be invoked at race tracks, what a blessing for the secretaries, for they would thus be freed of "badger horses." Then, too, the encrusted equine could be shipped to Mexico and the Central American Republics, where, thawed out, he might be used in cross-hobbled quarter races, or be made of service in the arid desert, hooked to the "thimble-skein" prairie schooner.

These remarks are called forth because of an entry of seventy-four maiden two-year-olds for the first race on the Hawthorne program yesterday. Secretary Kuhl threw out thirty-eight of these and split the remaining thirty-six into two parts, thus furnishing the guessing races carded first and sixth. To show that "badger horse" is an appropriate name, witness that there were four scratches in the first lot and three in the other. It is becoming as natural for a small fry racing follower to buy a thirty dollar yearling as for a Dutch saloonkeeper to purchase a shot gun. And several badges must be issued to such an owner. Horsemen of note usually win the maiden races and other owners, after keeping a maiden all the season, usually give him away, having made money with him through free badges.

Seventeen regular bookmakers were on. That the betting is good is evidenced by the fact that when on Tuesday last Governor Sheehan won there was $500 placed on him by one man, and the price opening at 8 dodged to 15 and went to the post at 13 to 1. The crowd yesterday was slightly larger than the average, as the weather was May-like and the hazy clouds presaged no rain, or, if any, nothing but showers. The track was as if water had been poured on by the hogshead and the hoof holes were quickly turned into small pools which would delight a tadpole or a mosquito.

Hero Jr., backed from 6 down to 3½ to 1, won the first race handily. His backing came through his exhibition at a previous start, of a first quarter, run in twenty-three and a half seconds, and again he is a son of that well remembered mud eater The Hero, who once at Washington Park won two races in one day. Second to Hero Jr. came Blue Lick, who got the place easily, from the pair fighting behind. Princess Murphy and Nat Roe, the former landing third money. Vogel cut some figure early in the fight and led the rear division at the finish although well behind Nat Roe.

With Sorrow and Organ Pilot left at the post, Red Gidd and Little Alarm raced into the lead in the next race, only to be picked up at will by the favorite, Verify, who went to the front in the home stretch and won lapped out by Marzella, who got off none too well and showed fourth into the straight. Afamada had no trouble in landing the show money. A. Cahn was the winner, Verify, while Sorrow belongs to J. C. Cahn. The fact was talked about that as Verify went down in price Sorrow went up. Again is brought to notice how easy it would be for a jockey to get a horse left at the post. Mr. Corrigan said: "The starter cannot make horses run. His business is to get them lined up and turn 'em loose."

A mare's nest was discovered in the third race. Don Quixote had opened at 6 to 5, Crocket 7 to 5, but a steady stream of "coarse" notes flowed in on the filly and her price at one time was as low as 9 to 10 while amid cries of "wake him up" the namesake of Cervante's hero went to 2 to 1. At this price it is said that "Kid" Weller's money was placed. People wonder how this young man makes his money. Why? Simply by betting at 2 to 1 on a horse that should have been 1 to 2. "Cad" Irish made a fortune "playing prices." Why not this reminder of Dickens' masterpiece. Don Quixote at once went to the front, and, paired with Dr. Sheppard, led the others, also paired by three lengths at the half mile ground. Here Crocket made her run but The Devil moved with her and never afterwards in the race did the favorite head "O.d Nick." At the far turn it was seen that Crocket and The Devil had left in them only a contest for the third money. Dr. Sheppard was allowed to take the lead into the home stretch, but when ready Martin passed to the front with Don Quixote, who won hands down by several lengths. The Doctor as easily beat The Devil, while the filly that couldn't lose ran "absolutely."

It was stated in these columns yesterday morning that the entries of W. J. (Canada) Smith would hereafter be refused at Hawthorne on account of Barabbas' last race. This was an error. Barabbas is ordered to stay in the stable but the owner is in good standing. He started Vice Regal in the fourth race and his horse was heavily backed as was also David, the favorite, at even money. Zolo shot out in front, but David quickly passed him and led up the backstretch with Collins second. When at the far turn the latter stopped to a walk. Vice Regal (never worse than fourth) ran second to David, and the pair seemed to have everything safe away off as they came into the homestretch, the favorite having the others beaten by two lengths. Now loomed up in third position but four lengths behind Vice Regal, Galen Brown's Can't Dance. The War Dance blood in this Longfellow gelding asserted itself and close in on the rail he came with a steady stride, not hurried by his jockey, Ellis, who, so nicely timed his final effort, that not until the last seventy-five yards did Can't Dance head Vice Regal. Close in he collared the fast tiring favorite and was first past the judges, much to the disgust of everyone save the bookmakers, who were by this win helped along toward even on the day. Marcus Cartwright, by the way, needs to knock down a favorite or two, as on Wednesday his book lost some $7,000, while his outside interests increased his losses to $12,000.

Dave Waldo, known as partial to the mud, stuck it out and beat Richard J., who got off none too well and was whipped hard the last eighth. Gold Band broke quickest, and, outrun by the choices in the betting, had no difficulty in landing third, although she was fifteen lengths behind Richard J.

Falomacita, on the strength of a second September 7, carried 115 pounds, but getting off second to Sidtilla, having on ten pounds less, she went to the front when ready and won easily. Sidtilla was as easily second, while the show money was fought for by Yo No Se and Rio Chico, the first named winning. Merops was close behind Rio Chico. He was breezed a quarter while on the way to the post. Menacious was practically left to a fair start for the other fourteen. The "prettiest thing" in this bunch of youngsters was the dark chestnut colt, Hi Kollar, a son of old Verge d'Or.

At Hawthorne J. Reiff is henceforth restricted to two mounts on any given day, E. Wishard to be the judge as to what horses he shall ride. The crack feather in no event will be allowed to ride in any race wherein his brother has a mount.

Winner—B. f. by Himyar—British Blue Blood. Start good. Won easily. The Lady in Blue was best as weighted. At that she had about all the luck in the race. Chappaqua closed strong at the end and is promising. Oration made up much ground from a bad beginning, and finished fast. Yankee Man is a grand looker. He ran very green and will do soon in good company. Veracious quit after being exhausted contending with the winner. General Shafter had a poor chance with his ride. Ellerdale closed up a big gap from a bad beginning. Bill Anthony showed a nice burst of speed. Juvenatus had no chance at the start. He ran green, and is a good looker that will bear watching.

Scratched—The Burlington Route, 112; Spurs, 112; Halo, 99; Tennith, 112; Mark Miles, 112. The Lady In Blue, place, even; show, 1 to 2. Chappaqua, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Oration, show, 8 to 5.

Winner—B. h. by Favor—Happy Sally II. Start straggling. Won easily. The Winner was himself today. He galloped throughout and outclassed his field badly. The race was remarkable from a time standpoint. Twinkler, off badly and pocketed, finished like a whirlwind. He ran impressively and in sharp contrast to his last race. Ben Ronald got a badly judged ride. He must be waited with always. He is very good. Knight of the Garter likes this track and ran finely today. Oxnard also showed well under bad pilotage. Maximo Gomez quit after going seven-eighths. He can do better. He got away poorly and took the long route. Long Acre ran poorly, but he was outclassed anyhow.

Scratched—Hats Off, 101; Black Dude, 90. Corrected weights—Long Acre, 92. The Winner, place, even; show, 1 to 2. Twinkler, place, 5 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Ben Ronald, show, 7 to 10.

Winner—Br. f. by Miser—Cruisken. Start good. Won driving. Acushla is wonderfully improved and got a strong ride. Prestidigitatrice had all the luck of the race. She was waited with just behind the pacemakers, who were running each other to a standstill. La Penitente was shut off at the start, took the long route and closed strong. Watch her over a distance. She was hustled off her stride by the fast early pace. Whiplash was a good filly to day. She killed off Lady Lindsay, but disposed of her own chances. Black Venus was all tangled up at the start and in all probability got a badly judged ride, and under whip swerved all over the track. Throw out this race. Still her race was not good, possibly due to dislike of the deep track. Lady Lindsay showed the highest order of speed to-day, but was ridden with bad judgment. Effervescent ran well.

Scratched—Onondaga's Pride, 112; Full Dress, 107; Diminutive, 107; Lady Sneerwell, 99; Halo, 99; Anagram, 112. Acushla, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Prestidigitatrice, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. La Penitente, show, 4 to 5.

HAWTHORNE RACING.

There was an addition to the riding talent yesterday. Jockey Knapp came in from the east. He has been riding for George Murphy. He says the latter has sold his horses, but will not quit she turf. He has gone to Fort Erie to book, thinking that a better game than owning horses.

John S. Campbell is on the way from Anacanda to Chicago with eight head of horses, in the string being Senator Bland, Mallakwa, El Mido and Missioner.

"Bishop" Poole expected Blue Lick to win as the colt is at home in the mud. He is a slow beginner however.

Col. W. E. Applegate is reported as making a "hog killing" on Dave Waldo.

Judge Rees is working hard on the investigation of the Tusculum race.

Tom Kiley was a new comer.

THE FORT ERIE RINGING CASE.

Start very bad. Won easily. There were ten lengths between the first two and the others at the start. George Keene has always shown a preference for this track. St. Callatine ran a good honest race, but not up to her best form. Continental ran a splendid race considering his handling by a stable boy. Glonoine ran well. So did Handpress. Handel, but for Burns' punishing tactics, would probably have been third. This horse is a wonder in the mud. He has had feet. Scratched—Irish Reel, 113; White Frost, 108; Nosey, 92.

Winner—Br. f. by Iroquois—Wild Flower.

Start good. Won handily. White Frost was lucky and probably the best. She won with a badly judged ride and took the long route. Banastar was shut off at the start. He was a good horse. Murillo, aided by the light weight, ran finely and had a good ride. Whistling Con was closing like a whirlwind. He is good but requires strong careful management. Filament ran an astonishing race for her and hung on well at the end. Lady Mitchell stopped badly in the stretch. She was overweighted and cannot stay in good company.

Scratched—Irish Reel, 126; Floronso, 119; Lilian Bell, 113; Great Neck, 97.

White Frost, place, 7 to 10; show, 1 to 3. Banastar, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Murillo, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Tyrant—Silence.

Start good. Won pulled up. Tyrian far outclassed the field and can beat much better ones. Fairy Dale was easily second best. Emma Nora, for a first time out, showed good form and should win soon among the maidens. Julius Caesar was turned around at the post at the start. Outside of the winner it was a very bad lot.

Fairy Dale, place, 3 to 1; show, 8 to 5. Emma Nora, show, 8 to 1.

Winner—Ch. g. by The Hero—Nola D.

Post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won driving and out to the last ounce; second, third and fourth driving just as hard. Hero Jr. had the speed of the party. His last start was at Harlem where he showed a lot of speed in breakaways and ran his race at the post. The fact that there was no recall flag caused a lot of wise play on him today. He won but it was a tight fit and Beauchamp almost threw the race away by drawing his whip the last hundred yards. Blue Lick under a strong ride was gaining fast at the finish and would have won in another stride. Princess Murphy came strong from behind in the stretch. She outgamed Nat Roe for third place. The latter tired as if short. Monongah ran a game race. Aker drove him hard all the way.

Scratched—Nilmah, 108; Orchard, 108; Teutons, 108; Immense, 105.

Overweights—Blue Lick, 1½ pounds.

Hero Jr. place, even; show, 1 to 2. Blue Lick, place, 2½ to 1; show, even. Princess Murphy, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—Ch. g. by Victory—Bonnie Lizzie.

Post 2 minutes. Start poor. Won easily; second hand ridden; third with something left after a hard, early drive. Verify reveled in the going and was much the best. McDonald was easing him up the last eighth of a mile. This is a good racehorse and is capable of beating better ones. Marzella, off none too well, made up a lot of ground. She could not have beaten Verify with a running start. Afamada ran a fair race. Little Alarm had no excuses. She got away flying, but simply did not have the speed and endurance to last. The same can be said of Red Gidd. Organ Pilot and Sorrow collided at the start. That is the cause of their being left.

Scratched—Digs, 107; Cyril, 101; Tom Toher, 101; Official, 104; Ferroll, 101.

Overweights—Domozetta, 5 pounds.

Winner—B. c. by Charaxus—Ethie.

Post 1 minute. Start good. Won cleverly; second eased at the end after early punishment; the other driving to the limit. Don Quixote has been underestimated. He is almost a stake horse in the mud and drew away from those behind him in the stretch as though they were tied. Dr. Sheppard's price was away out of line. The ring evidently figured he could not run in the mud. Their calculations were out of line, and the Doctor's race was a good one. He carried Don Quixote out on the stretch turn, but not enough to cause damage. The Devil got third place through sheer gameness. Crocket's race was a bad one. She seemed anchored in the going and was beaten before a sixteenth of a mile had been covered.

Don Quixote, place, 2 to 5. Dr. Sheppard, place, 2 to 1; show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. g. by Longfellow—Square Dance.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won driving to the limit; second under keen pressure and out to the last ounce; third eased at the end. Can't Dance was well ridden and came with a determined effort at the end, clearly outgaming David. It was a great improvement over his last race too, in fact it was a startling form reversal. He seems to be a rank in and out. David was perhaps used too much early. McDonald rode him away from the post and kept at it all the way; handled with better judgment he might have won. Vice Regal looked dangerous after passing the half mile ground but quit and swerved under pressure in the stretch. Collins showed some early speed but either sulked or stopped. Tonto was always outrun.

Scratched—Inconstancy, 106; Yuba Dam, 109; Bishop Reed, 109. Prince of India, 109; Linda, 106.

Winner—B. c. by Sayre—Helianthus.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden and all out. Waldo had his usual turn of speed and it was evenly distributed. Bloss rode the colt with rare judgment. He placed him to perfection in front. The ride helped a lot to win. Waldo is such a free-running colt that heretofore he has been allowed to race himself to pieces the first part of the route. He is a hard horse to place, but can be nursed as was plainly shown. Richard J was off in the rear division and made up his ground too rapidly, but was catching Waldo fast at the finish compelling Bloss to go to his whip. It was strictly a two horse race. Gold Band was third without being urged. W. C. T. had no speed at all.

Winner—B. f. by Falsetto—Jennie June.

Post 2 minutes. Start fair. Won easily; it was a drive between the next three. Falomacita seemed right at home in the going. She galloped under a stout pull the entire route. Sidtilla was fortunate in getting away, always had a clear path and ran a good race. Yo No Se has worked fast and was well played. He deserves notice in a maiden race from now on. He ran a bit green. Bloss got tangled up in the barrier with The Grinder at the start. Hi Kollar is a grand looker. Lillie Mark had no speed.

Scratched—Flirtation, 115; Thought So, 105; Ramlet, 105; Cousin Lettie, 105.
